About Brasserie Gavroche

Brasserie Gavroche is an institution in the heart of Singapore, capturing the charm of a traditional French Brasserie. From antique furniture to mosaic floor tiles and a historic 1930s bar counter sourced from the iconic Café de la Paix in Paris, the ambiance transports guests to the heart of the French capital.

The menu is inspired by Chef Frédéric Colin's grandfather, featuring classic French dishes such as French Onion Soup, Fish Quenelles, and Pâté en Croûte (Baked Pork Terrine). Each dish reflects a commitment to using the freshest ingredients, prepared with simplicity to highlight their natural flavors.

Founded in 2011 and named after the iconic character from "Les Misérables", Brasserie Gavroche is a tribute to Chef Frédéric's heritage and the timeless allure of Paris. Dining here is more than a meal—it's a journey to Paris, where the essence of French cuisine and culture comes alive.
